

Have you ever considered writing a story about your own life but just haven't got around to doing it yet?

www.lifeofmine.com makes the job simple and fun.

It's so easy that anybody can do it. All you need is an e-mail address and access to the Internet. There is no software to install and it works on both PC and Mac using your web browser.

The website has some simple forms to fill in that help you record the most important information. You don't have to be a creative writer to record your story.

There are lots of features including a very large database of news and events to help you remember the important things that have happened during your lifetime. It provides details of popular culture including sports, books, songs and movies. You can browse thousands of pre-recorded events and add them to your story with a single click.

You can record your own stories, and describe memories of your past. Everything you record automatically appears in chronological order in your story.

You'll be able to see at a glance what was happening in your life - and in the world - at a particular time, and be able to share your story with your family.

Is this a Genealogy site?

No. Genealogy is the study or investigation of ancestry and family histories whereas this website is all about you, your history, your memories and what has made your life unique.

How private is my information?

Nobody can sign-in to your account without knowing both your unique member number and password. It is important to choose a password that is not easy for others to guess and to keep your member number and password safe.

Can I add photographs

The website currently supports only text, however it is easy to copy your story from your web browser and paste it into another application such as Microsoft® Word®. You can then easily insert photographs.

How much does it cost?

An annual subscription costs NZ$25.00 and you can safely subscribe online using your credit card.
